AWARD

CHRI Faculty Scholar Awards support mid to late Assistant, or early Associate Professor appointed as Non-Tenure Line, Research (NTLR), University Tenure Line (UTL) or Medical Center Line (MCL) Faculty as follows:

- $100,000 per year for up to 5 years;
- Use the resources first for their remuneration and benefits and second to support research costs such that there shall be demonstrable, significant and meritorious scholarship/research activities related to innovation in maternal or child health.

PI ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for the award, the applicant must meet these criteria:

- Hold a NTLR, UTL or MCL faculty appointment within the School of Medicine
- Be a member of CHRI. Visit here to apply for CHRI Membership.
- Have a track record of focusing the majority of their research on maternal or child health;

TIMELINE

Awards will be announced in July 2018. Proposals that are not funded can be resubmitted during the next announced funding cycle (FY19).

NOMINATION

Potential CHRI Faculty Scholars will be nominated by the Clinical Department Chair* wherein they hold their primary School of Medicine academic appointment. The Chair’s nominating letter will:

- Confirm eligibility
- Enumerate the nominee’s current time commitment to clinical, education, research, and administration, and the time commitment to these activities if named a CHRI Faculty Scholar.

*If the Chair serves on the Faculty & Harman Scholar adjudication committee, the applicant will be nominated by their Division Chief.

APPOINTMENT

Unless specified by the philanthropic gift agreement, the endowment for a CHRI Faculty Scholar does not "belong" to any specific Department or Division, but instead rests within the CHRI and is used in a manner that optimizes the use of these resources for innovation in maternal and child health.
