

Stanford Intern Code of Conduct

Stanford interns are expected to adhere to the highest standards of good citizenship, honesty, and integrity in their academic work and in their personal conduct.

- Interns are expected to show courtesy and respect for their fellow students, for Stanford University personnel, and for University visitors.
- Interns shall not take part in or facilitate discrimination of any kind, including, but not limited to, discrimination based on gender, race, national origin, ethnicity, age, religion, sexual orientation, disability, handicap, or intelligence.
- Interns are expected to show respect for and take reasonable care of University property, including laboratories, classrooms, and other Stanford facilities, equipment and furnishings (for instance, course materials, computers, sports equipment, street signs, and other structures in outdoor areas).
- Interns are expected to respect the belongings of their fellow students. They shall not borrow, use, or disturb items belonging to other students or staff without clear prior permission. Interns also are expected to respect the belongings of the participants of other programs at Stanford, and other Stanford visitors.
- Interns shall not use, possess, or distribute alcohol, tobacco, or drugs, with the exception of prescription and over-the-counter medications.
- Interns are expected to be well-behaved and follow the instructions of the residential staff, instructional staff, and other University personnel. Unruly behavior will not be tolerated.
- Interns shall not commit acts of violence on persons or property, nor shall they threaten to commit any act of violence.
- Interns shall not engage in any form of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment includes sexual conduct, or conduct with sexual overtones, which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning, residential, or working environment.
- Interns shall uphold high standards of academic integrity through honesty, trust, fairness and responsibility. Interns are expected to demonstrate a spirit of cooperation and exploration within the academic guidelines provided by their instructors, and to meet the intellectual challenges of their internship through honest effort and hard work.
- Interns are expected to know and to follow all rules listed in this Code of Conduct.
