

Santa Clara County-

Adolescent Counseling Services- Outlet:

Outlet empowers Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer & Questioning (LGBTQQ+) youth and builds safe and accepting communities through support, education, and advocacy. Multiple locations: Redwood City, Mountain View, and San Mateo. For more information, please call 650-424-0852 or visit <http://www.acs-teens.org/what-we-do/outlet/>

Adolescent Counseling Services- Adolescent Substance Abuse Treatment:

ACS' Adolescent Substance Abuse Treatment Program has been providing professional assessment and outpatient treatment services for youth struggling with substance abuse and/or addiction. Services are provided in English and Spanish. Located in both Santa Mateo and Santa Clara counties. For more information, please call 650-424-0852 ext. 104 or visit <http://www.acs-teens.org/what-we-do/treatment/>

Asian Americans for Community Involvement:

AACI is Santa Clara County's largest community-based organization focused on improving the health, mental health, and well-being of individuals, families, and the Asian community. Services include HIV testing, education and outreach, counseling, support/discussion groups, information and advocacy.

For more information call 408-975-2730 or visit www.aaci.org

Bay Area Children's Association:

BACA is a nonprofit mental health agency committed to providing integrated, scientific, and empathetic treatment for children, youth, and their families. Two locations: San Jose and Oakland.

For more information please call (San Jose) 408-996-7950 or visit www.baca.org

Counseling and Support Services for Youth:

CASSY is a nonprofit agency that partners with schools to provide professional mental health services to students in their academic setting. Serves multiple locations.

For more information please call 408-493-5289 or visit <http://cassybayarea.org/contact-us/>

Children's Health Council:

The Center serves children and teens ages 2-17 with multidisciplinary evaluation, personalized treatment, and innovative programs. They offer an initial parent consultation to create expert multidisciplinary evaluation, personalized treatment and innovative programs. For more information please call 650-688-3625 or visit <http://www.chconline.org/the-center-at-chc/>

Community Health Awareness Council:

Offers counseling services, Drug and Alcohol outpatient services for adolescents, and Youth Groups (work on building self-esteem and resiliency).

For more information, please call 650-965-2020 or visit <http://www.chacmv.org/clinic/>

Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Stanford - Child and Adolescent Mental Health:

Both hospital-based and outpatient services are offered through the Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Child Development. Hospital-based services provide psychiatric care for children and adolescents who are hospitalized for medical conditions. Outpatient services include eight specialty clinics that treat specific disorders within a wider range of childhood conditions. For more information, please visit <http://www.stanfordchildrens.org/en/service/child-adolescent-psychiatry>

Stanford Center for Youth Mental Health and Wellbeing:

Committed to spearheading a new national vision for adolescent and young adult wellness and mental health support through educational and community partnerships, mental health technology, and implementing innovative early intervention programs and support.

Visit <https://med.stanford.edu/psychiatry/special-initiatives/youthwellbeing.html>