It’s Summer time... but safe lab attire is important year-round!

- Lab coat
- Closed toe shoes (keep a spare pair in the lab if you want to wear sandals outside the lab)
- Pants provide better skin protection than shorts or skirts
- Gloves and eye protection - depending upon the materials you are working with

Note Closed Toe Shoes

A message from the School of Medicine Health and Safety Programs Office 723-0110