Neurology Grand Rounds
Location: LKSC-130

8-9am “Stroke & Women: The Importance of Age and Sex”
Louise McCullough, MD, PhD
Professor and Roy M. and Phyllis Gough Huffington Distinguished Chair of Neurology, University of Texas Health Sciences Center

Move to Clark Center S360
9-9:10am Coffee Break

9:10-9:40am “Making sense of 3D kinematics of reaching”
Ahmet Arac, MD, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Neurology, University of California, Los Angeles

9:40-10:10 am “Clonally expanded CD8 T cells patrol Alzheimer's cerebrospinal fluid”
David Gate, PhD
Postdoctoral Fellow, Stanford Dept. of Neurology, Tony Wyss-Coray Lab

10:10-10:30am Coffee break

10:30-11 am “Fluid Biomarkers of Cerebrovascular Degenerative Disease”
Fanny Elahi, MD, PhD
Assistant Professor, Neurology, School of Medicine, UCSF Weill Institute for Neurosciences

11-11:30am “How to Create Socially Inclusive Stroke Rehab Tech: The STORIES Project”
McKenzie Eakin, Stanford MD Student, Stanford Stroke Recovery Program

11:30am-12pm Lunch Break

12-1pm “Stroke Recovery: The Emotional Journey and Rebuilding Identity”
Debra Meyerson, Adjunct Professor, Stanford Education School; Stroke Survivor; Author; and Steve Zuckerman, Managing Director, Self-Help California; Debra’s Husband

Contact Information
Jackie Bautista
Phone: 650-498-5855
jackieb@stanford.edu

Registration: https://tinyurl.com/yyu58dmm