

Welcome,

Thank you for visiting the Outpatient Palliative Medicine Clinic at Stanford Cancer Center Palo Alto.

Our goal is to assist you in improving your quality of life. We will support you, your family, and caregivers throughout the course of your illness, by offering a range of services, including symptom management, advance care planning, and education regarding your illness and treatment options. The Palliative Medicine team includes physicians, advance practice provider nurses, social workers, and chaplains, who are trained to address your physical, psychological, social, and spiritual needs.

Please review the material in this packet. If you have any questions or concerns, our clinic is available, Monday-Friday between 8:00am-4:30pm, at (650) 724-0385. If you need to leave a message, a member of our team will return your call shortly. You are also always able to reach out to our team through the online MyHealth application, and we will respond to your needs within 2 business days. Should urgent needs arise outside of these hours, please contact your primary specialist. If your primary specialist is oncology, you can reach them at (650) 498-6000.

We look forward to partnering with you and your family.

Sincerely,

The Palliative Medicine Team
