ASSET Course

Goal: ASSET (Advanced Surgical Skills for Exposure in Trauma) is an American College of Surgeons course that uses human cadavers to teach residents surgical exposure of anatomic structures that, when injured, may pose a threat to life or limb.

https://www.facs.org/quality-programs/trauma/education/asset

This course takes place in Spring of the academic year and is taught by the trauma faculty.

Requirement:
- PGY 3s are required to complete this course in the Spring of the academic year