FAMMED 215
Primary Care Defined: Perspectives and Procedures

Fall Quarter Lunch Seminar on Thursdays @ 12:30, Alway M112, 1 unit

Perspectives from Leaders in Primary Care
Addressing topics such as salary, lifestyle, prestige, rigor of clinical practice, and career opportunities.

Networking & Mentoring Opportunities
Representation from leaders, program directors, and trainees across pediatrics, family medicine, and internal medicine.

Hands-on Procedural Workshops
Direct (socially distanced) immersion in common office-based procedures, such as: abscess incision & drainage, joint injections, IUD insertion, and skin biopsy.

COURSE SCHEDULE

9/24 Introduction to Primary Care Careers and Initiatives
10/1 Primary Care in Global Health: Abscess Incision and Drainage
10/8 Primary Care in Sports Medicine: Knee and Shoulder Injections
10/15 Primary Care in Family Planning: IUD Insertion
10/22 Primary Care in Community Health: Shave Biopsies
10/29 The Life of a Primary Care Physician
11/5 Training to Become an Excellent Primary Care Clinician
11/12 COVID-19 and Primary Care
11/19 The Patient Perspective of Primary Care

Questions? Please contact our course TAs
Jonathan Lu, MS2 jhlu@stanford.edu
Gabrielle Nord gnord4@stanford.edu
Danielle Pedersen dkpeders@stanford.edu

Faculty Leads
Dr. Meena Chelvakumar
Dr. Erika Schillinger
Dr. Tracy Rydel