Repetitive Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation (rTMS) delivers brain stimulation in an outpatient clinic.

Participants receive either active or sham treatments. Those that receive sham will have the option to receive active treatments.

This study requires frequent visits to the Palo Alto VA for about 1 month with a 4 month follow-up visit.

Participants will receive research treatments at no cost to them and will receive financial compensation for travel and their time.

To learn more, Call us at (650) 496-2578
3801 Miranda Avenue
Palo Alto, CA 94304

Can rTMS improve thinking and memory?
“Repetitive Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation for Dementia”

Are You:
A Veteran?
At least 55 years old?
With Mild Cognitive Impairment or Alzheimer’s Disease?

If yes, we’d like to hear from you.

Call (650) 496-2578

Or ask your doctor about rTMS research

- Repetitive Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation (rTMS) delivers brain stimulation in an outpatient clinic.

- Participants receive either active or sham treatments. Those that receive sham will have the option to receive active treatments.

- This study requires frequent visits to the Palo Alto VA for about 1 month with a 4 month follow-up visit.

- Participants will receive research treatments at no cost to them and will receive financial compensation for travel and their time.