

28 July 2008

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the pediatric endocrinology fellowship at Stanford and Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. We are currently accepting applications for the year beginning in July, 2010. You may download our application from our website – dped.stanford.edu.

Once the completed application and letters of reference have been received, we will review your file. We will invite two to four candidates to an interview to meet with all faculty and fellows January through March of 2009.

If you have specific questions regarding our program or the status of your application, please contact our office at (650) 723-5791 or e-mail me at dwilson@stanford.edu.

On behalf of the division, I wish you success as you proceed with your career plans.

Sincerely

Darrell
