Assistant, Associate or Full Professor in the Division of Head & Neck Surgery
Endocrine Head & Neck Surgery Program
Stanford University School of Medicine Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery

The Division of Head & Neck Surgery in the Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery and the Stanford Cancer Center at Stanford University School of Medicine seeks a board-eligible or board-certified Endocrine Head and Neck Surgery-focused Otolaryngologist to join the department in either the Medical Center Line, University Tenure Line or the Clinician Educator Line, preferably with fellowship training in Head and Neck Oncologic or Endocrine Surgery. Proficiency in ultrasonography of the head and neck desired.

Faculty rank will be determined by the qualifications and experience of the successful candidate. The predominant criteria for appointment for faculty in the Medical Center Line shall be excellence in the overall mix of clinical care, clinical teaching, scholarly activity that advances clinical medicine and institutional service appropriate to the programmatic need the individual is expected to fulfill. The major criteria for appointment for faculty in the University Tenure Line is a major commitment to research and teaching. The major criteria for appointment for faculty in the Clinician Educator Line shall be excellence in clinical care, clinical teaching, and scholarly activity.

We expect the successful candidate to join and expand an active clinical practice in thyroid and parathyroid surgery, be an active teacher of medical students and residents, and to develop a robust research program.

Stanford University is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty. It welcomes nominations of and applications from women, members of minority groups, protected veterans and individuals with disabilities, as well as from others who would bring additional dimensions to the university’s research, teaching and clinical missions.
