Visiting the Stanford Campus

The Stanford campus, one of the most beautiful of all universities, is a great place to visit! We are located in Palo Alto, less than an hour south of San Francisco, in the heart of Silicon Valley. During and after the course there will be ample opportunity to enjoy the many activities available on campus and in the surrounding area. Optional post-conference activities include a walking architectural tour of the Stanford campus; docent-led tour of the Stanford Cantor Museum; a visit to the Computer History Museum.
