Welcome: Antonio Hardan, MD, Stanford Autism Center and Lara Sandora, Stanford Parent Advisory Board Member

Sally Ozonoff, PhD, Professor, UC Davis MIND Institute
"Advances in Early Screening and Diagnosis of ASD"

Q/A

Break

New Trends in Autism Research at Stanford
Brief 20-minute presentations (including Q & A) from Stanford researchers

Janani Venugopalakrishnan, MD
"Suicide and Autism Spectrum Disorders"

Mirko Uljarevic, PhD
“Development of a New Measure of Restricted and Repetitive Behaviors”

Makoto Kawai, MD
“Sleep Characteristics and Neurodevelopment in ASD”

Daniel Abrams, PhD
“Voice processing brain systems: a window into communication deficits and social reward in children with autism”

Lunch, Stanford Research Labs available to discuss research opportunities via zoom

Parent Advisory Board Awards

Matthew Goodwin, PhD, Associate Professor & Associate Chair, Bouvé College, Northeastern University
"Predicting Challenging Behavior in Individuals with Autism using Wearable Biosensors and Machine Learning Classifiers"

Paul Wehman, PhD, Professor, Virginia Commonwealth University
"School to Work for Youth with Autism: Career Pathways Toward Successful Competitive Employment"

Break

Breakout Sessions (participants choose one to attend)
Session 1: Sally Ozonoff, PhD, "Assessments during the time of COVID: Opportunities and Challenges"
Session 2: Matthew Goodwin, PhD, “The promises and pitfalls of innovative technology in autism”
Session 3: Paul Wehman, PhD, “Vocational preparation for youth with autism spectrum disorder”

Virtual Social Hour moderated by Stanford faculty