

12th ANNUAL CONFERENCE
Breast Cancer and African Americans

Saturday, August 26, 2023 / 7:30am – 3:30pm, PST
‘Helping Communities Better Help Themselves’

DoubleTree by Hilton-Newark, 39900 Balentine Drive, Newark, CA 94560

Calling Black/African American women of all ages and health status to join us for an important dialogue about breast cancer to help EDUCATE, EMPOWER, and CHANGE the disproportionate burden of this disease in our local communities, all within a safe and supportive environment designed for and by Black women. The event is hosted by the Stanford Cancer Institute’s Office of Cancer Health Equity, in conjunction with our dedicated community partners.

Register Online: tinyurl.com/2023BCAA. Deadline to register is Aug. 18th.
No Cost to attend. Registration is required. All are welcome!
