

Biography of Short Course Instructors

Dr. Naitee Ting, Ph.D., is a Fellow of American Statistical Association (ASA). He is currently a Director in the Department of Biostatistics and Data Sciences at Boehringer-Ingelheim Pharmaceuticals Inc. (BI). He joined BI in September of 2009, and before joining BI, he was at Pfizer Inc. for 22 years (1987-2009). Naitee received his Ph.D. in 1987 from Colorado State University (major in Statistics). He has an M.S. degree from Mississippi State University (1979, Statistics) and a B.S. degree from College of Chinese Culture (1976, Forestry) at Taipei, Taiwan.

Dr. Ting published articles in Technometrics, Statistics in Medicine, Drug Information Journal, Journal of Statistical Planning and Inference, Journal of Biopharmaceutical Statistics, Biometrical Journal, Statistics and Probability Letters, and Journal of Statistical Computation and Simulation. His book “Dose Finding in Drug Development” was published in 2006 by Springer, and is considered as the leading reference in the field of dose response clinical trials. The book “Fundamental Concepts for New Clinical Trialists”, co-authored with Scott Evans, was published by CRC in 2015. Naitee is an adjunct professor of Columbia University, University of Connecticut and University of Rhode Island. Naitee has been an active member of both the ASA and the International Chinese Statistical Association (ICSA).

Dr. Qiqi Deng, Ph.D., is a Senior Principle Biostatistician at Boehringer Ingelheim Pharmaceutical. She is currently a member of the Methodology Expert team within global statistics, which focuses on statistical methodology innovation. Her research area includes hypothesis and modeling in dose finding, pragmatic considerations in designing dose finding trials, including adaptive design aspects. Before she joined the methodology group, she has served as leading statistician for multiple projects, across different clinical development phases and therapeutic areas. Dr. Deng received her bachelor’s degree in Mathematics from Peking University in China, and obtained her Ph. D. in Statistics from University of Minnesota.
