

RESPECTFUL EDUCATOR & MISTREATMENT POLICY

- Stanford Medicine is committed to providing a work and educational environment conducive to teaching and learning, research, the practice of medicine and patient care.
- Conduct inconsistent with this policy may seriously impair learning.
- Both faculty and students are expected to adhere to similar standards of respectful and professional behavior.
- The Respectful Environment & Mistreatment Committee (REMC) carries out the purposes and procedures of this policy.
- Stanford Medicine provides ongoing education to promote a positive learning environment and discourage violations of the standards of conduct for the teacher-learning relationship. For more information, refer to section 3.13 of the MD Handbook and Policy Manual

REPORTING MISTREATMENT

<https://med.stanford.edu/md/student-wellness/mistreatment.html>

If you experience mistreatment, please report through one of the following:

- Contact Office of Medical Student Wellness at somwellness@stanford.edu to confidentially discuss a plan of action, or
- Report mistreatment incidents (including by patient) via MedHub (Stanford.medhub.com), or
- Complete a SAFE report through the hospital. Student mistreatment reports are confidential and sent directly to OMSW to address promptly, or
- Report incidents to courses directors and/or the Assistant Deans for Pre-Clerkship or Clerkship Education