

Stanford | MEDICINE

Stanford Medicine Art & Anatomy Summer Program (Rising 9th-12th grade)

Art & Anatomy: Medical Illustration is a 2-week summer immersion in narrative medical illustration and blends the study of human skeletal and musculature anatomy with artmaking. Apply Here

DATES : June 13th - June 24th, 2022

TIME: 10:00 am - 4:00 pm (M - F)

Program Tuition: $2,999

Application Fee: $35

Create a medical illustration with a clear narrative that is anatomically accurate and expressive

Learn tips, tricks, and tools for improving your drawings while expanding your anatomy vocabulary

Experience Stanford Medicine curriculum from leading faculty whose work bridge both art and science.

Receive mentoring, personalized guidance, and an Art and Anatomy Certificate upon Completion.

Join a cohort of future art and science visionaries and innovators

For more information visit our website