Unity

How does someone understand something,
That which they cannot perceive?

In search of the Truth and the Untruth,
What is the Truth and the Untruth?

Everybody wants to be right,
And nobody wants to be wrong.

Where there is the Absolute Truth,
There is nothing else but the Untruth.

Everybody wants to be right,
And nobody wants to be wrong.

Am I wrong to be right?

What is Unity to you?
