

Fuji Apple Award
(Outstanding Teaching/Mentoring of Fellows)

Each year the Department will recognize a faculty member for outstanding teaching and mentoring of fellows.

Eligibility criteria:

- Any member of the Department of Pediatrics faculty (UTL, MCL, NTLR, NTLT and CE) may be nominated.
- Awards cannot be won by faculty within the same division within three years, and not by the same individual within five years.

Who can nominate:

- Any fellow, faculty, staff, student, resident, or postdoctoral scholar working in the Department of Pediatrics may nominate an eligible faculty member.

Nomination process:

- Nominations must be submitted through the online survey, which will be reviewed by the Award Selection Committee.
- Nominations should total half a page in length, and must include:
 - Name of the nominee
 - Rationale for why the individual deserves the honor (1-2 paragraphs)
