

PREP (Prevention and Recovery in Early Psychosis)

- Affiliation
 - Felton Institute
- Main Contact Information
 - Training
 - Nicole Milan
 - Email: nmilan@felton.org
 - Phone: 415-474-7310 x640
 - EIP Technical Assistance
 - Dr. Nev Jones
 - Email: njones@felton.org
 - Phone: 415-474-7310 x731
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - PREP Informed Trainings
 - Pre-Training Needs Assessment
 - 6 course introductory online training didactic
 - 1 Full Day Overview and Introduction (including: cultural factors, stigma, cultural assessment, case management)
 - 2 Day Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Psychosis (CBTp) followed by coaching
 - 2 Day Cultural Clinical Assessment followed by coaching
 - 2 Day SCID/QSANS/QSAPS Assessment followed by coaching
 - Technical Assistance:
 - Mixed methods evaluation of CSC programs
 - Mixed methods quality improvement
 - Participatory evaluation/client-centered outcomes measurement
 - Linkages to higher education/supported education
 - CSC discharge/step-down process
 - Peer support
 - Peer/youth leadership and involvement in CSC
 - Early Psychosis Cultural Competency
 - Cultural and socio-environmental factors that contribute to psychosis risk
 - Cultural explanatory frameworks
 - Culture bound syndromes that can mimic psychosis
 - Psychosis and trauma in refugees and immigrants
 - Psychosis in the LGBT community (including role of hormone therapies for trans clients, links between gender identity-related bullying and psychosis)
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered

- Nationally

OASIS Program

- Affiliation
 - University of North Carolina
- Main Contact Information
 - Diana Perkins, M.D.
 - Email: Diana_perkins@med.unc.edu
 - Phone: 919-962-1401
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - North Carolina CSC Model
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - North Carolina
 - OASIS clinics: Carrboro and Raleigh
 - RHA clinics: Wilmington

PIER Training Institute

- Affiliation
 -
- Main Contact Information
 - William R. McFarlane, M.D.
 - Email: piertraining@maine.rr.com
 - Phone: 207-210-2014
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - Full training for program implementation in the PIER model for first-episode and clinical-high-risk psychosis
 - Psychoeducational multifamily group
 - Family psychoeducation
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - Nationally and Internationally

Center for Practice Innovations

- Affiliation
 - New York State Psychiatric Institute
- Main Contact Information
 - Liza Watkins, LMSW (Associate Director, OnTrackNY)
 - Email: watkins@nyspi.columbia.edu
 - Phone: 646-774-8424
 - Address:
Center for Practice Innovations, New York State Psychiatric Institute
1051 Riverside Drive
Room 2702, Box 100
New York, NY 10032
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - OnTrackNY full team training
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - Nationally

UC Davis Early Psychosis Programs (EDAPT & SacEDAPT Clinics)

- Affiliation
 - UC Davis
- Main Contact Information
 - Tara Niendam, Ph.D., Director of Operations
 - Email: tniendam@ucdavis.edu
 - Phone: 916-734-3090
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - Assessment
 - Outcome Evaluation
 - Suicide Risk
 - Family Advocate
 - CBTp

- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - Northern CA

EASA Center for Excellence

- Affiliation
 - EASA Center for Excellence, Portland State University
- Main Contact Information
 - Tamara Sale, Director and Ryan Melton, Clinical Training Director
 - Email: tsale@pdx.edu; rymelton@pdx.edu
 - Phone: 503-725-9620; 971-218-9251
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - Early Psychosis Overview, Core Principles, Practices and Resources
 - Steps and Key Decisions in Starting an Early Psychosis Program
 - Individualized training and consultation focused on early psychosis integration in state and local systems of care
 - EASA model- Community education, access, engagement, treatment planning, team membership and functioning, family education and partnership, individual treatment practices, IPS supports, transition planning
 - Young Adult Participatory Decision Making
 - Occupational Therapy Practices in Early Psychosis
 - Differential Diagnosis for Psychotic Disorder
 - Multifamily Group Psychoeducation (within Oregon)
 - Feedback Informed Treatment
 - Ongoing consultation: program implementation and improvement, systemic integration, differential diagnosis, engagement, treatment matching, transition planning

PRIME Clinic

- Affiliation
 - Yale University
- Main Contact Information:
 - Barbara C. Walsh, PhD
barbara.walsh@yale.edu
203-974-7052
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - SIPS/SOPS Certification Training
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?

- Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - International

Specialized Treatment Early in Psychosis (STEP)

- Affiliation
 - Yale School of Medicine (Yale University)
- Main Contact Information:
 - Jessica Pollard, PhD
jessica.pollard@yale.edu
(203) 974-7345
- Offers Technical Assistance?
 - Yes
- Trainings Offered
 - “Topics ranging from setting up a coordinated specialty care clinic, monitoring benchmarks, assessment, outreach and engagement, public education, training non-mental health professionals to recognize early warning signs of psychosis, creating a culture of care, medication management, and supervision.”
- Offers Ongoing Consultation?
 - Yes
- Geographical Areas Covered
 - (Skipped)