

Office of COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

January
2019
4:30-7:30 PM

*If all the forms of inequality, injustice in health is the most shocking and the most inhuman- Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
Second National Convention of the Medical Committee for Human Rights, Chicago, March 25, 1966*

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Noha Aboelata, MD
CEO & Founder Roots
Community Health Center

INVITES YOU TO THE

17th Annual

Addressing Health Disparities at a Community Level

Community Health Symposium

JEN-HSUN HUANG ENGINEERING CENTER
MACKENZIE ROOM | ROOM 300 | 3RD FLOOR
475 VIA ORTEGA | STANFORD, CA | 94305

REGISTRATION & CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Register Today

http://bit.ly/CHS_2019

Submit Abstract

http://bit.ly/2019CHS_Abstract

ABSTRACT DEADLINE

EXTENDED!

SUNDAY, JANUARY 6, 2019

Be a part of this historical event!

The Community Health Symposium is an annual event held at Stanford Medicine, which showcases a wide range of service and partnership research projects undertaken by Stanford students, trainees, and faculty in underserved communities here and around the world

Contact us for more info!

oce.stanford.edu

CommunityEngagement@stanford.edu
Luis Garcia, SMS | lgarcia@stanford.edu
Ghida El-Banna, SMS | gelbanna@stanford.edu

Let's Get Social!

