Additional Resources Provided by Foreign or Domestic Entity

NIH reminds applicants and recipients that other support includes all support both domestic and foreign made available to a researcher in support of and/or related to all of their research endeavors, regardless of whether or not they have monetary value. This includes resources and/or financial support from all foreign entities, including but not limited to, financial support for laboratory personnel, and provision of high-value materials that are not freely available (e.g., biologics, chemical, model systems, technology, etc.).

Examples of other support include, but are not limited to:

- Sponsored Funding: Information on other active and pending sponsored project support. Include sponsor name, project/agreement number, name of Principal Investigator, title of project/subproject, dates of approved/proposed project, and effort commitment represented in person months.
- Resources: Report all resources provided by a domestic or foreign entity that contribute to the scientific development or execution of a specific or multiple project(s) in a substantive, measurable way, even if the support received is only in-kind (e.g. office/laboratory space, equipment, supplies, employees). All research resources including, but not limited to, foreign financial support, research or laboratory personnel, lab space, scientific materials. Note: you don’t need to assign a dollar value to the resource for the purposes of listing in your Other Support form.
- Materials: Provision of high-value materials not freely available (e.g., biologics, chemical, model systems, technology, etc.). Indicate which specific project (s) the materials are relevant to. Note: you don’t need to assign a dollar value to the resource for the purposes of listing in your other support.
- Lab Personnel: Identify personnel (primarily visiting scholars/students) working in a researcher’s lab who are supported by a domestic or foreign entity either through salary, stipend, or receipt of living or travel expenses and which NIH funded project(s) the specific Lab Personnel works on. Note: you don’t need to assign a dollar value to the compensation for the purposes of listing in your other support.
- Travel: Expenses related to extensive travel (domestic or foreign) that are directly paid or reimbursed by an outside entity (does not include federal support) for the recipient project leader or staff for the purpose of data collection, surveying, sampling, or similar activities related to your NIH grant and the specific NIH project(s) this travel support is related to. List the amount of the total reimbursement received.
- Other: List selection to a foreign “talents” or similar-type program, or other foreign or domestic support
