The mission of the Stanford Center for Clinical Research (SCCR) includes offering educational resources, training, and support for investigators and research staff. We have invited a highly-experienced educator in clinical research training, Patty Kasper, MS, to provide you with an advanced training on preparing for an FDA audit.

At the conclusion of this class, you will be able to:

1. List key areas checked by an FDA inspector
2. Describe how to prepare documentation prior to a regulatory inspection
3. State important ways to be inspection-ready

Registration for this course is through STARS, activity code SCCR-5069 and is STAP eligible. The cost of the training is $100. Please note that class size is limited to 25. If you have any questions, please contact Kiera (Larsen) Davis at klarsen5@stanford.edu.

About the Instructor:

Patty Kasper, MS, received her Masters of Science degree in Bacteriology and Public Health from Washington State University. She is a recognized expert in clinical research training and operations with more than 20 years of industry experience. For the last two decades, Patty and her team have provided training to more than 1,800 research professionals in the biopharmaceutical and medical device industries. Patty also served on the faculty of the UCSC Extension Program as part of the Clinical Trials Design and Management Certificate Program. She is active in the Northern California Chapter of ACRP and is currently serving as the Vice President.

Board of Registered Nursing (BRN) OPTIONAL

P. Kasper & Associates will provide 2 BRN contact hours to each attendee who completes the class. A certificate of completion will be provided to each participant at the conclusion of the class. Please also complete an evaluation of the course. An evaluation link will be emailed to you at the conclusion of the class.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

In order to receive credit for attending this workshop, you are required to attend the full 2-hour session. In an effort to respect others and our guest instructor, please make prior arrangements if you need to arrive late or leave early by contacting Kiera (Larsen) Davis.
